HOW TO APPLY

When choosing a new class, the NYU Admissions Committee reviews each application comprehensively, considering and carefully evaluating the following significant factors:

- 1. Your Common Application*
- 2. School report (including a letter from your guidance counselor and your transcript)
- 3. Standardized test scores you choose to submit (e.g., SAT, ACT, SAT Subject Test, AP, IB, or other national examination scores)
- 4. One teacher evaluation
- 5. Optional arts portfolio (for applicants to visual arts, music, theatre, film, and new media programs)

The committee also takes into account each applicant's unique talents, personal attributes, accomplishments, and goals. For more information, visit admissions.nyu.edu.

*Our application fee should not discourage any student from applying to NYU. Students who feel that the application fee would be a financial hardship for their families can request a fee waiver on the Common Application. It's that simple.
